

secure password sharing

to keep all of your login information safe + secure, follow these steps for sharing any of your account usernames + passwords with us.

(note: we're providing 2 ways to share, pick the 1 that works best for you.)

text method

1. send us an email (hello@littleandtiny.com) with the login URL + username of the account
2. send a second email to us with a different subject line + the account password only in the body of the email

image method

1. take a screenshot of your username + password (not sure how to take a screenshot? this will help.)
2. attach the screenshot to an email with the login URL only in the body copy
3. send the email to us (hello@littleandtiny.com)

if you have any questions, shoot us an email.
